Three Words To Make Your Winter Better: Taco Beach Shack

📍 Where: 334 Arizona St. [\[map\]](#), Hollywood, FL, United States, 33019

This tasty piece of news slipped by us in December, but now we're in the middle of the January freeze, we think we're going to savor it even more: Hollywood Beach Suites, Hostel + Hotel in Florida has a brand new Mexican cantina, Taco Beach Shack. We love all three of those things, so how can it go wrong?

Located on A1A just off Hollywood Boulevard, the huge outdoor space has a wraparound bar, sofas, ping-pong tables, large plasma screens--and soon it will also have a swimming pool.

Then, of course, there are the tacos. Executive chef Stuart Snowwhite (formerly of Westin Hotels in Houston) swears that his dishes come straight from Mexico, although there are a few original dishes on the menu, too.

Being by the beach means you'll want to go for the signature seafood items, such as the Baja-style fish tacos ($10.99) but there are plenty of other options as well, including burritos, nachos, and Huevos rancheros from the breakfast menu.

Taco Beach Shack is open seven days a week from 8 a.m to 10 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and until 2 a.m. on Friday and Saturday. If you overdose on quesadillas and margaritas, you can always consider staying over--a bunk in a shared room at the Hollywood Beach Hostel is on special this weekend for just $18.75 a night.

The name of that rate? 'Single and Ready to Mingle.'
